

Inspiring Excellence

Department of Computer Science and Engineering, Brac University

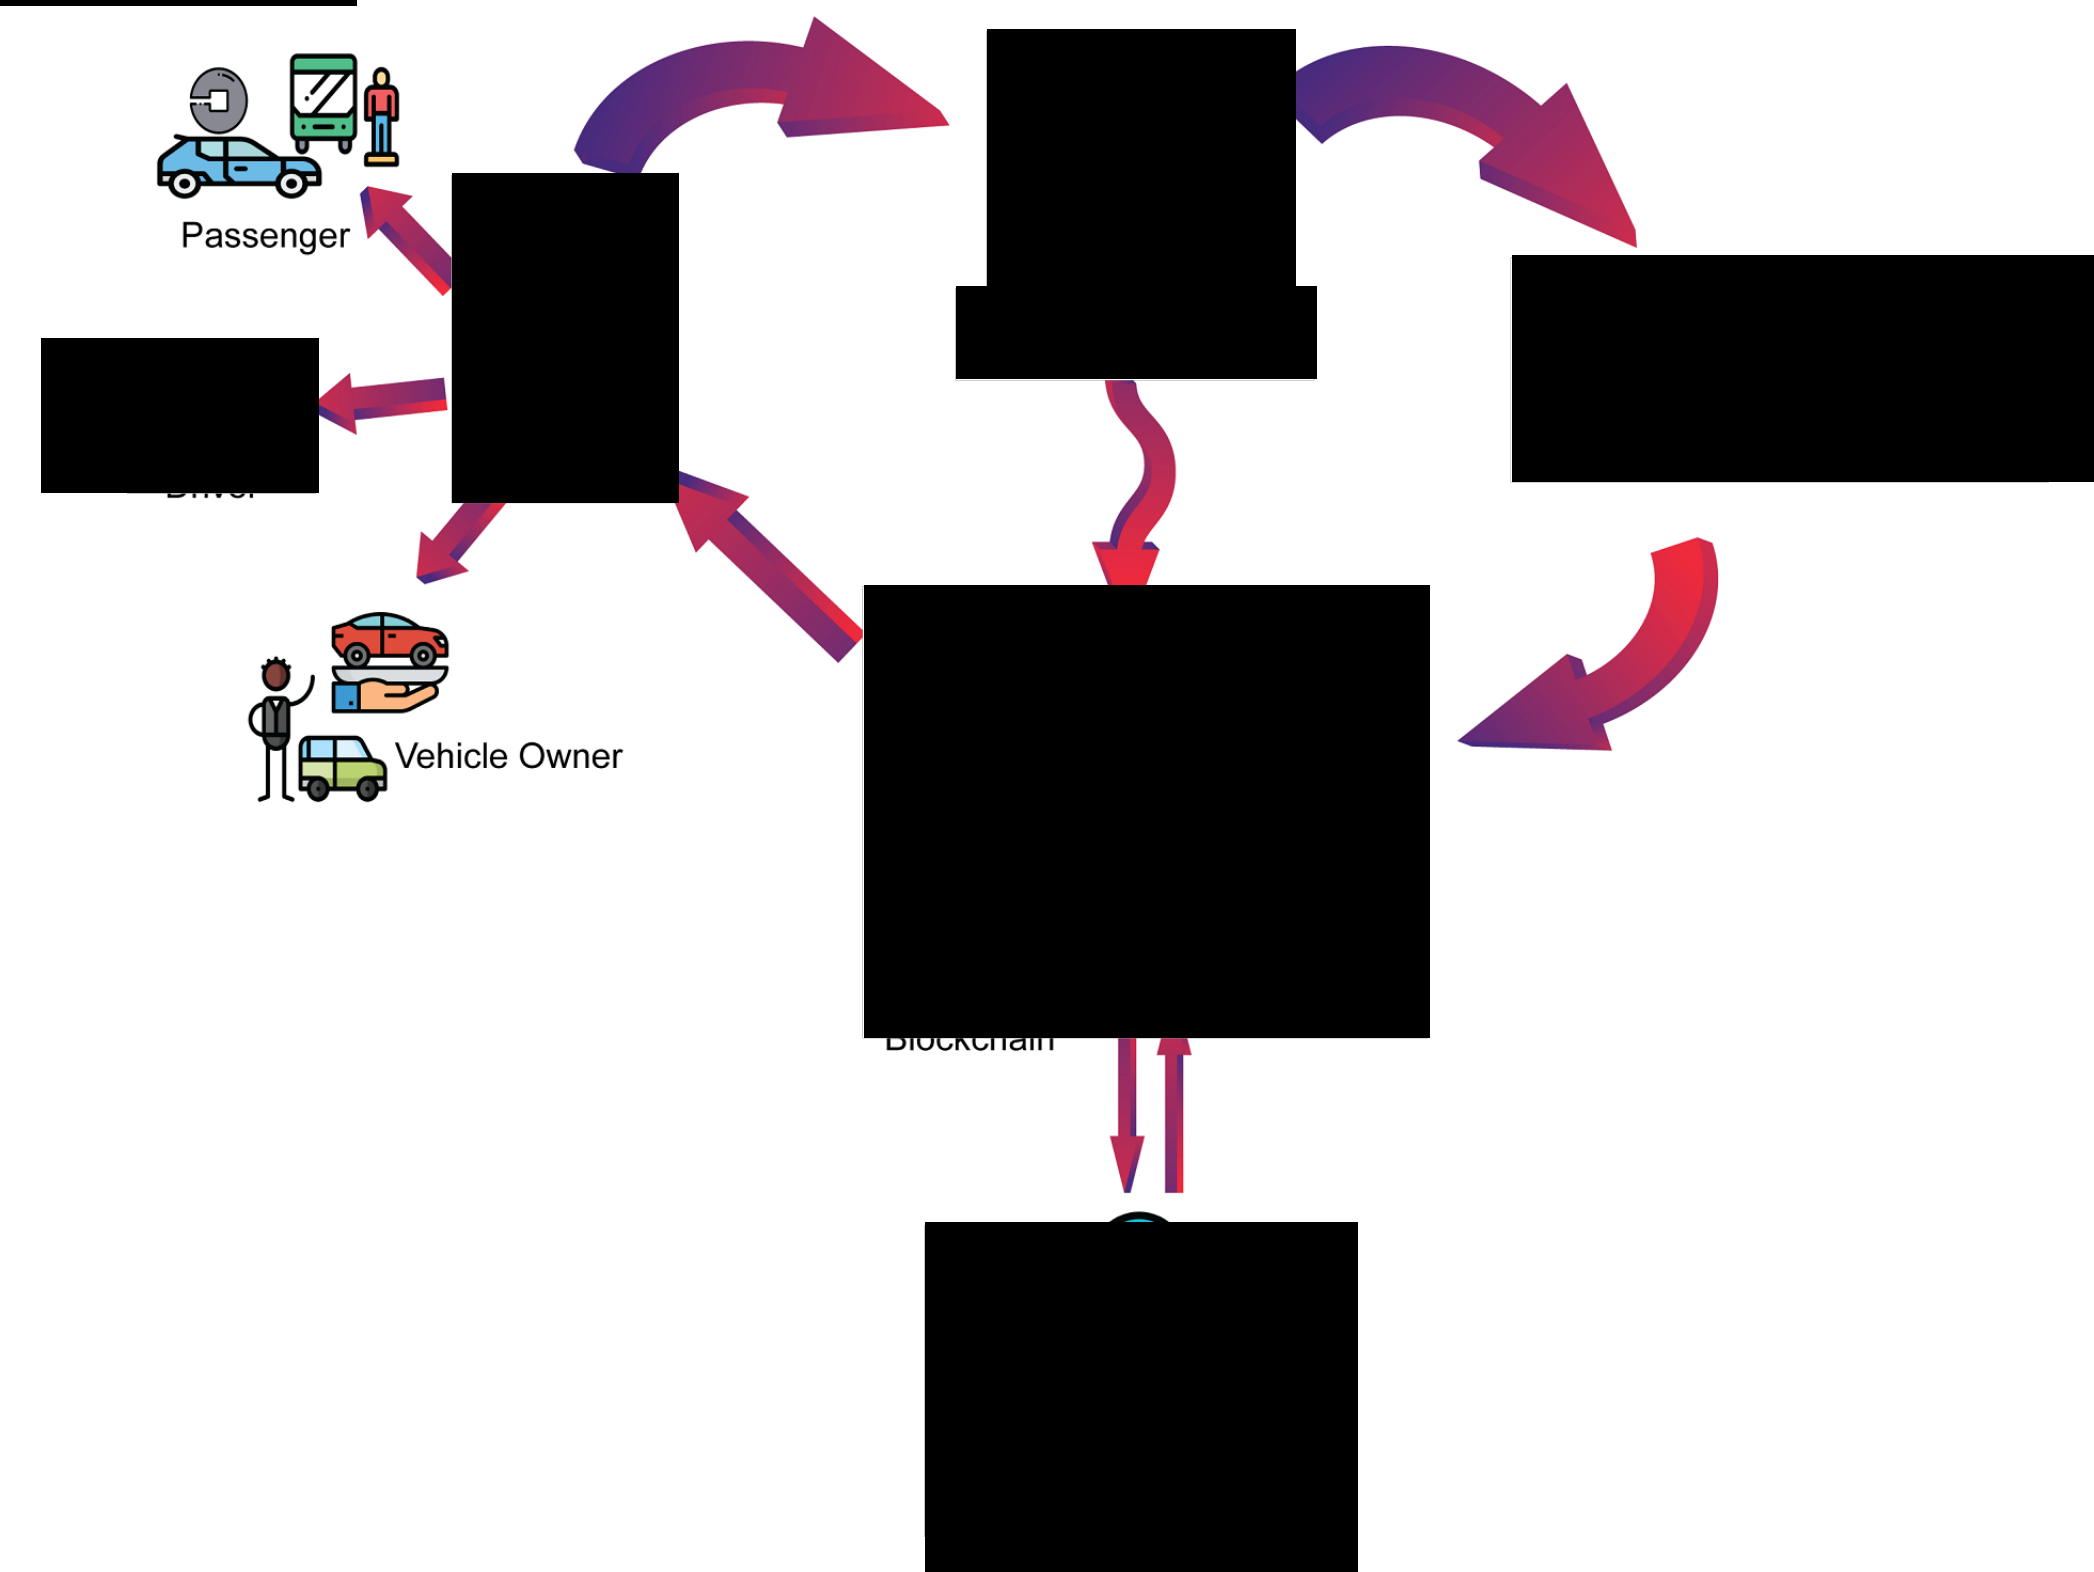

Abstract

[REDACTED]

Introduction

Managing driver profiles, including license validity and past records, will surely come under the focus with the spread of development on the global stage and Bangladesh's smart city digitalization ambition. In order to monitor driving habits, solve traffic violations,

[REDACTED]

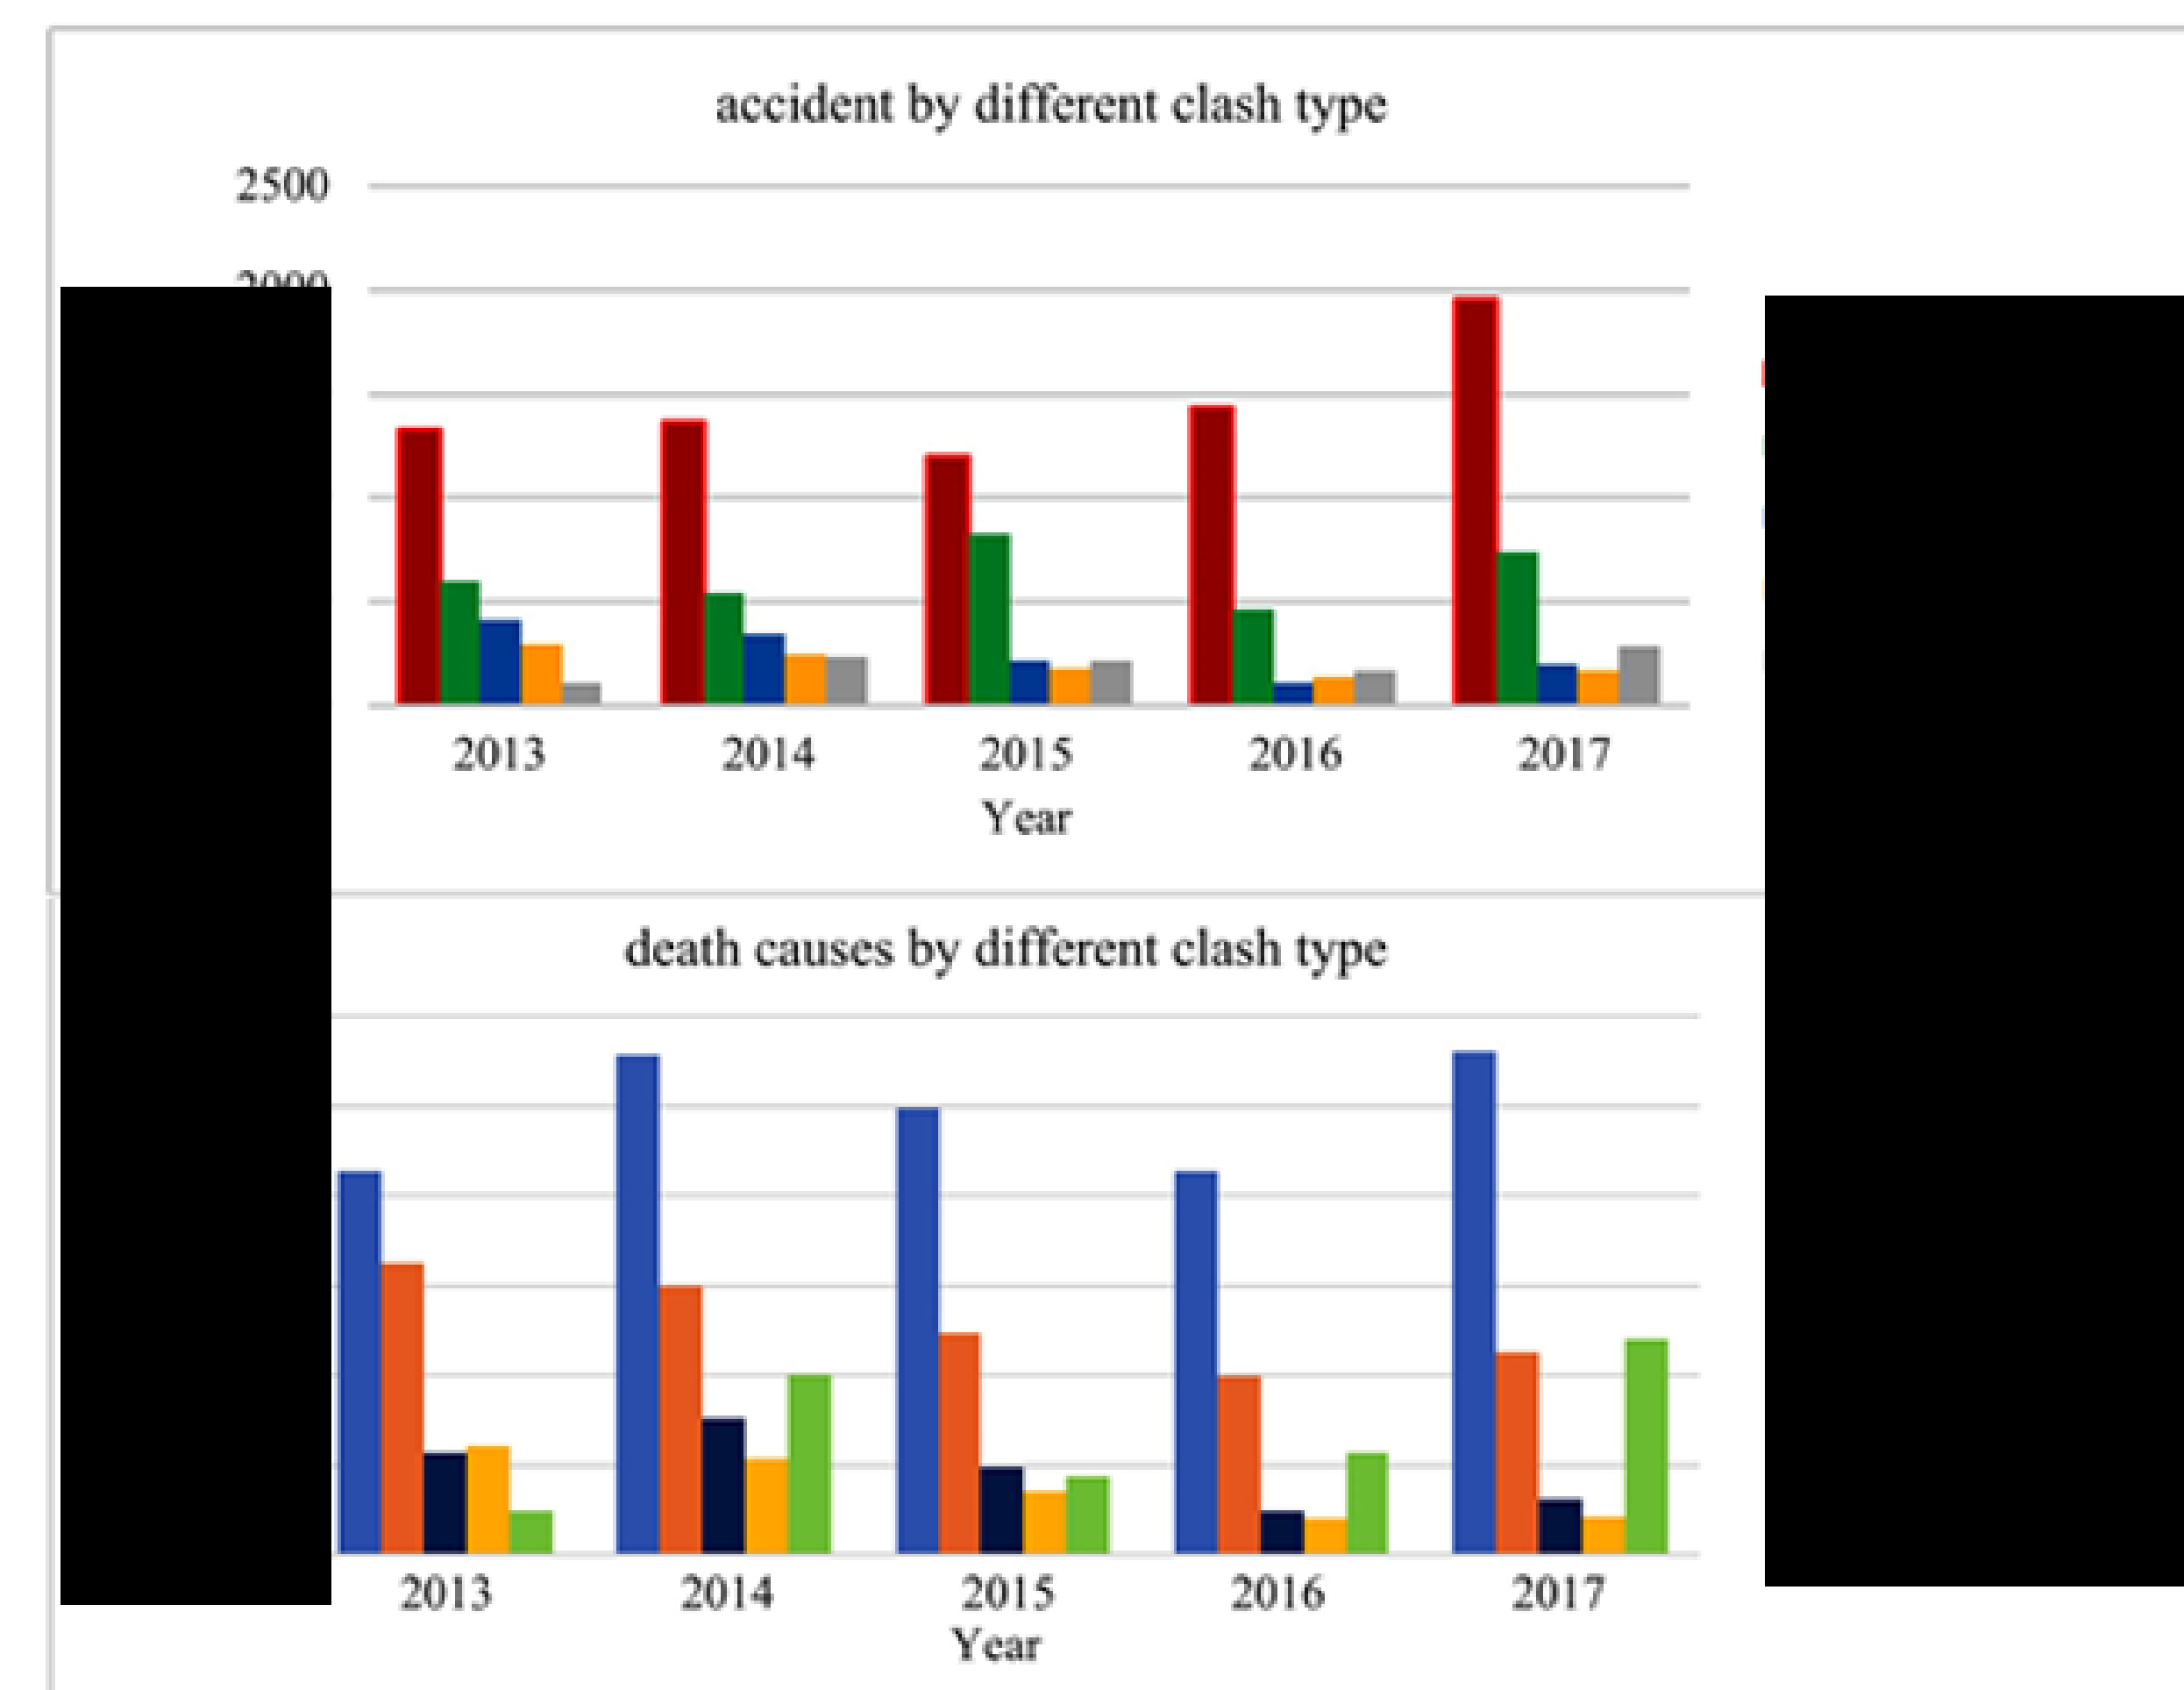

The above Fig shows the system basic

Problem Statement

This study focuses on and investigates how we can ensure no data leakage and transparency of authentic driver records by utilizing blockchain. In recent years, road tr

[REDACTED]

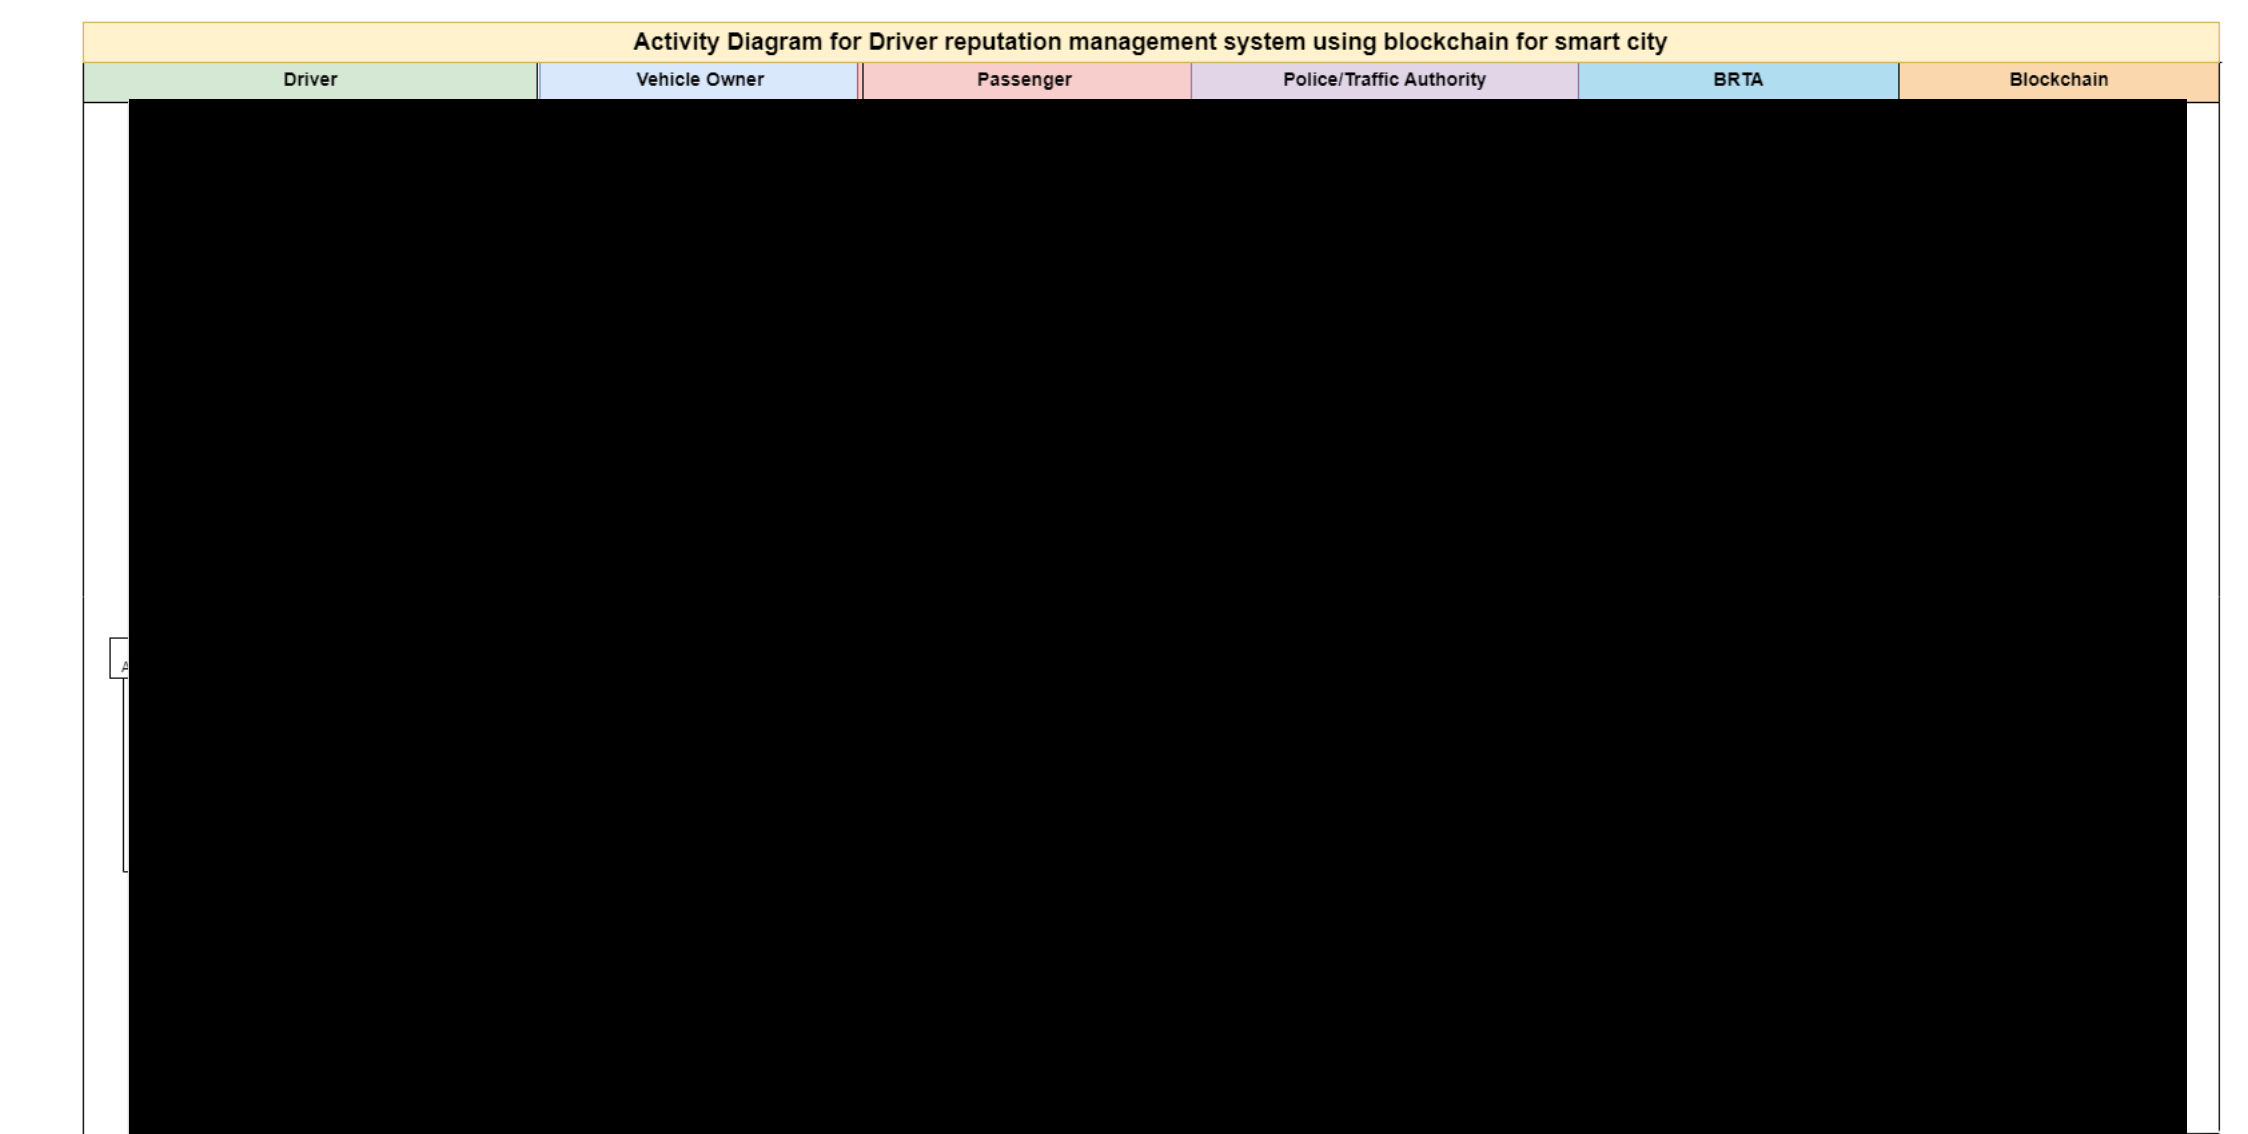

Proposed Model Using Blockchain

[REDACTED]

system based on block chain technology could to be issued. After exhaustive inquiry by the the blockchain and their details will become the appropriate consensus mechanism, using , drivers, police, and the BRTA, and public mpts have been made to enhance performan- an effort to eliminate the performance issue. uld be useful to hash a fingerprint-like unique object to ongoing authentic tracking starting iving license from the BRTA and continuing ny third-party manipulation, all in the name of maintaining citizens' safety and preserving drivers' reputations.

The above Fig shows the intercommunication of our system

Impacts and Contributions

[REDACTED]

ability, censorship of third- and performance thanks to er reputation management arency. Additionally, secu- ie to block chain networks, checks and require consent authority manipulation.

Conclusion

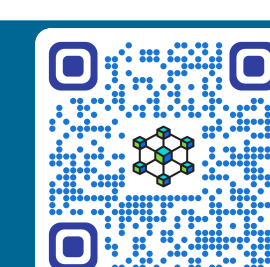

[REDACTED]

ladesh Road Transport Authority vehicles, questioning transparency on like Bangladesh [1]. Lack of cer- ed drivers are the two main causes heavy impact on roads every day. with data security and accuracy to

Reference

- [1] Paul, S. (2007). dents in Bangladesh.
- [2] Bangladesh Road

[REDACTED]

Scan to See Full Report