

AI Agent Request Path

Read tools return grounded answers directly; write tools require explicit consent, a scoped session key, and an append-only action log before executing on-chain.